Seasonal savories

Lady Edison NC country ham

The best of the best: heritage breed hogs, pasture raised, aged eighteen months. Quite special, like high-end prosciutto. Served with cultured butter, sunchoke pickles, sorghum molasses and little angel biscuits .....

Eastern NC "shrimpburger" sliders

Fried seafood? Put it on a bun, call it a burger, ENC style. Crispy shrimp mousseline, green tomato ketchup and chopped slaw on a tiny house potato bun .....

North Carolina style brunswick stew (cup/bowl)

Traditional stew found at BBQ spots - tender potatoes, sweet corn, butterbeans and shredded chicken in a rich and tangy tomato broth, served with a wedge of our cornbread and whipped sorghum butter .....

Classic corn puddin'

Roasted and dried sweet corn from Anson Mills, simmered with cream and caramelized onion and baked with eggs into a delicious lil souffle, topped with fresh chive .....

Crispy potatoes, trout and eggs

Potatoes confited in Mangalitsa lard, fried crispy, dressed with ramp leaf pecan pesto. Topped with cherrywood-smoked McFarland Springs trout, fried egg & chives .....

Seasonal sweets

Warm brown butter blondie

With black walnuts, bourbon caramel, and Steen's cane syrup whipped cream .....

Spiced Kabocha squash cupcakes

With maple cream cheese frosting and oat crumble .....
